Forecast for Saturday 22 Jan 2022

Weather: A few clear spells overnight with a touch of frost in places. It will be another rather cloudy day but some bright or sunny intervals will break through, mainly across the south and east of the National Park. Feeling cold on the tops.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 600m: 60%. Best chance across the south and east.

Visibility: Patchy low cloud will bring some fog at times above about 600m. Otherwise visibility will be very good away from any low cloud.
